

Racing Meet on Whitney Estate in the Wheatley Hills Will Attract the Fashionable Set

SOCIETY always takes a keen interest in outdoor sports, and from now until the season opens at the various summer resorts its attention will be centered upon racing, polo, horse and dog shows, tennis and golf. The first of the Long Island meets took place yesterday at Hewlett Bay Park, under the auspices of the Rockaway Hunting Club, and there was a large attendance of members of the fashionable world, the Long Island set in particular being in force. Most of the large estates on the island are open and are filled with guests over the week end, the majority of whom motored over to the track yesterday afternoon for the races.

Next Saturday afternoon Harry Payne Whitney's beautiful estate will be the scene of the second meet held under the auspices of the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association. The course on Mr. Whitney's place is most picturesque and is sure to attract society in large numbers. Last year it brought out one of the largest crowds of the season and was preceded by many luncheons given at the nearby estates.

The first of the outdoor dog shows will be held at Mineola on June 3 and 4 by the Ladies' Kennel Association, and the first horse show will be on June 4 and 5 at Tuxedo. The officers of the Tuxedo Horse Show Association are Theodore Frelinghuysen, president; George Griswold, vice-president; Pierre Lorillard, jr., secretary, and William M. V. Hoffman, treasurer. A. D. Juilliard, Henry M. Tilford, O. J. Harman, Newbold Le Roy Edgar, Richard Delafield, W. Averell Harriman, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, Ambrose Monell, jr., Robert Goetzel, George G. Mason, William B. Dinsmore and Richard Mortimer are on the executive committee.

Many entertainments of a private nature are being arranged for the officers of the Atlantic fleet, who will be here from May 8 to May 18. The dinners and dances given in their honor at private homes will be almost as numerous as the public affairs. Although they will be comparatively small, they will be very smart and will bring together some of the most representative families of the city. Cornelius Vanderbilt heads the Mayor's committee which is planning entertainments for the officers and men of the fleet, and he has associated with him prominent members of New York's fashionable world.

SOME OF THE BRIDES OF THE WEEK— ENGAGEMENTS JUST MADE KNOWN

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Munroe Smith, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Munroe Smith, to Lawrence Cushman, of Boston, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the home of her parents, 169 East Seventy-fifth Street. The Rev. Lea Luquer will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a small reception. Miss Anne Swan Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells Hubbard, of Boston, will be the maid of honor, and the other attendants will be Mrs. Franklin King and William A. Barren, of Boston.

In St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, tomorrow at noon Miss Frances Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Stokes, will become the bride of Louis C. Clark, jr., son of Louis Crawford Clark, of 21 West Forty-seventh Street. A wedding breakfast will follow at Lone Oak, the home of the bride's parents in Germantown. Penn. Miss Stokes will have no attendants. Greenville Clark, of 500 Madison Avenue, will act as his brother's best man. Mr. Clark and his bride will spend a part of their honeymoon in Spain.

Miss Margaret Seton Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Robert Porter, of 365 Park Avenue, will be married to J. Horton Jams, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tabb Jams, next Saturday afternoon in Trinity Church, Hewlett, Long Island. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William F. Kempner, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. B. Townsend Henshaw, of Christ Church, Rye, N. Y., and a reception will be held at Lauderdale, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Porter in Lawrence, Long Island. Miss Porter will have her sister, Miss Dorothy Dwight Porter, as her maid of honor, and for her bridesmaids she has chosen Miss Helvetia Orr, of Chicago; Miss Dorothy Anderson, Miss Helen De Forest Griffin, Miss Margaret R. Warren, Miss Louise Dixon and Miss Gertrude R. Pardee. Miss Alison Phillips and Miss Katharine Delano Porter will be the flower girls.

Wilder Goodwin is to act as best man, and the ushers will include Dr. G. Adams Leland, of Boston; Antonio Lazo, Ross R. Harrison, Sidney P. Henshaw, J. Fahys Cook, Harry M. Addison and William B. Boulton, jr.

One of the interesting engagements announced last week was that of Miss Rosalie O'Brien, daughter of former Justice and Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien, of 729 Park Avenue, to Dr. Henry James, of this city, son of the late Nathaniel W. James, of Baltimore. Miss O'Brien was introduced to society several years ago, and since her debut has taken an active part in the social and charitable life of the city. She is a sister of Mrs. Lytleton Fox and Mrs. Stuart Duncan Preston. Dr. James was graduated from Yale in 1903 and later from the College of Physicians and Surgeons. He was an interne at Roosevelt Hospital for two years, and since then has been associated with his uncle, Dr. Walter B. James, 17 West Fifty-fourth Street. Last autumn he went to France and worked in a hospital at the front for nearly five months. He returned to New York a few weeks ago. The wedding will take place in June.

At the reception following the wedding of Miss Cordelia Drexel Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, to Angier Buchanan Duke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin N. Duke, on last Wednesday in Philadelphia, an announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Mary L. Duke, sister of the bridegroom, to Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, jr., brother of the bride. Miss Duke was one of the bridesmaids. Mr. Biddle acted as one of the ushers. Miss Duke was introduced to society several seasons ago and has been popular in fashionable life both in this city and in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Stoddard, who were married very quietly on Thursday in St. Thomas's Church, will spend part of their honeymoon in Europe. Mrs. Stoddard was Miss Mollie Andrews.

An informal dance will be given tomorrow night in the casino ballroom of the Biltmore under the auspices of the Veterans Corps Artillery of New York. Charles Elliot Warren is chairman of the committee in charge, and associated with him are Walter Leonard Suydam, Howland Pell, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, Charles Isham, James Mortimer Montgomery and Frank Landon Humphreys. Among the members of the floor committee are Charles Augustus Van Rensselaer, Theodore Roosevelt Pell, Edward Coleman Delafield, Paul G. Thebaud, Philip Rhinelander, Louis Hays Des Passes, Howard Fletcher Whitney, De Witt Clinton Falls, Thomas Denny, John Francis Daniell, Frank Everett Davidson, Benjamin Rush Lummis, J. Herbert Claiborne, John Moore Percy, Chandler Smith, Thatcher Taylor, P. Luquer, James Clark McGuire and Howard Thayer Kingsbury.

The patronesses include Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, 3d, Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Louis W. Statesbury, Mrs. Hermann Ogilichs, Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. George F. Shady, Mrs. Mortimer Delano, Mrs. John Du Bois, Mrs. James Laurens Van Alen, Mrs. W. Lanier Washington, Mrs. W. S. Groesbeck Fowler, Mrs. George L. Nichols, Mrs. George Austin Morrison, jr., Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, Mrs. Theodor Bailey, Mrs. Henry Scott Rokenbaugh, Mrs. Robert Olyphant and Mrs. Andrew C. Zahriske.

The annual garden party of the New York Society of the Army Relief Society will be held on Wednesday, May 26, on Governor's Island. General Leonard Wood has received word from Colonel Appleton that the 7th Regiment will accept the invitation to be present and give a dress parade. The committee in charge of the party consists of Mrs. Harriet M. Center, chairman; Mrs. Oliver B. Bridgman, Mrs. Fabius M. Clark.

Kirkpatrick, daughter of the late Judge Andrew Kirkpatrick, of Newark, to William P. Hardenbergh, jr., son of Mrs. and Mrs. William P. Hardenbergh, of 10 East Sixty-fourth Street, will be celebrated on June 5 at Short Hills, N. J.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth

Miss
Eugenie
Rand
Kazanjian
Photo

PhotobyKazanjian

H. T. B. Jacquelin, of 39 West Tenth Street, was one of the season's debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bird have returned to the city from Aiken, S. C., and are at the Gotham for several weeks.

Mrs. E. Henry Harriman will go to

GENERAL SOCIAL NEWS AND NOTES OF INTEREST

The Metropolitan Opera House will once more open its doors on Saturday next, May 8, when the German artists of the company will appear in a special performance of "Die Fledermaus," a comic opera by Johann Strauss. The performance takes place under the auspices of the German Ambassadors, Count von Bernstorff, and of a special committee consisting of Mrs. William R. Shepherd, chairman; Mrs. Rudolph Cronau, secretary; Mrs. Harold Graeme Cortis, Mrs. Randolph Guggenheimer, Mrs. Ernst Krueger, Mrs. Edith A. Reiffert, Mrs. Albert A. Ripberger, Mrs. Ulrich Schoedler, Mrs. Emma Schwartz and Mrs. Samuel Untermyer. The proceeds will be divided equally between the German Red Cross and the Fund of the Deutsche Buehnenverein for the relief of artists suffering from the war.

Miss Madeline Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Augustus Miller, was married to Harold Flammer, of this city, on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, 37 West Seventy-second Street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. John Lewis, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Deborco, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geri, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kenney, Dr. and Mrs. William E. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bernal, Mr. J. W. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stewart Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hanson, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Marsh, Mrs. Walter Janvier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. John Dale, Mr. and Mrs.

man, and the ushers were Carleton

Arden, N. Y., on June 1, for the summer.

Mrs. Robert Winthrop will go to Lenox, Mass., early in June for the summer.

For the benefit of the Lulu Thorley Lyons Home for Crippled and Delicate Children, the society of which Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish is president will have a card party at the Hotel Shelburne, Brighton Beach, on the afternoon of May 11. There will be dancing and afternoon tea, as well as cards. The committee in charge consists of Miss Florence Guernsey, Mrs. Albert Canfield Bage and Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish. Among those who have taken tables are Mrs. James Madison Batten, Mrs. Albert Canfield Bage, Mrs. Ronald Bonnar, Miss Mary Jordan Baker, Miss Helen Barrett, Mrs. Edgar H. Cottrell, Mrs. George Oscar Cole, Mrs. John M. Duncan, Mrs. Casper William Dean, Mrs. William Durland, Mrs. Alfred W. Dodsworth, Mrs. Henry Baldwin Fischer, Mrs. Franklin Fyles, Mrs. Oliver Field, Miss Florence Guernsey, Mrs. William Tod Helmuth, Mrs. H. P. Hodson, Mrs. Edward Davis Jones, Mrs. M. W. Larendon, Mrs. Philip B. La Roche, Mrs. S. O. Livingston, Miss Laila Mar-salis, Mrs. George Walter Newton, Mrs. C. W. Powers, Mrs. W. Edgar Prudden, Mrs. Robert Hamilton Rucker, Mrs. Charles D. Orth, Mrs. George Ruppert, Mrs. Pauline Roeder, Mrs. Stuart Meek, Mrs. Thomas Slack, Mrs. Bond Stow, Mrs. Emma Swartz, Mrs. C. F. Terhune, Mrs. M. E. Trumbour, Mrs. Darwin W. Truss, Mrs. Frank Keith Taylor, Mrs. Thomas Vivian, Mrs. James H. Wainwright and Mrs. William S. Young.

A garden gambol is to be given at the opening of the Italian garden of the Hotel Biltmore on Thursday afternoon, May 6, for the benefit of the Mayfair Relief for Refugees and Convalescents. There will be exhibition dancing by Mr. and Mrs. Rendel-General, followed by general dancing under the direction of Miss Juliana Cutting. The executive committee includes Mrs. William C. De Lanoy, Mrs. Heil Moller, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. George W. Seligman, Mrs. J. H. Holden, Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Mrs. Ruel B. Kimball, Mrs. Colledge and Miss J. M. Humphreys. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Philip

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Hanan and her son, John H. Hanan, 2d, will go to Shore Acres, Narragansett Pier, on June 1 for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hanan will spend most of the summer cruising on board their yacht the Surf, which is due to arrive in this port from England in a few days.

Mrs. T. M. O'Connor, of 511 West 112th Street, gave a subscription dance in the Rose Room of the Hotel Majestic on Thursday.

Mrs. Bertha Fellman, of 255 West Ninety-fifth Street, will give an engagement reception, dinner and supper for her daughter, Miss Viola Fellman, at the Hotel Majestic to-day. Miss Fellman's engagement to H. L. Ettinger was announced recently.

Last Wednesday evening the University Forum of America, Alexander Cumming, president and founder, at its club, 550 West 113th Street, held its first "open house" for college graduates. This is the only clubhouse in New York City that is open to both men and women who are college graduates. The affair was so successful that it has been arranged to continue these social evenings every Wednesday.

Frank Pennington was Mr. Waite's best man. The ushers were Herman Wright, of New York; Hugh McIntyre, of New York; and Elliott Styles, of New York. A large reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, which was prettily decorated with dogwood and spring flowers. Some of the guests present were Mrs. William E. Waite, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Beverley Eyre, F. Beverley Eyre, jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Van Lear Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. William Rianhard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace, Clinton Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Paine (Miss M. J. Haring), Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gould, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. David C. Gould, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Hodge Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Van Vechten, Mrs. Daniel P. Duffie, Mr. George Chambers, Miss Edith Chambers, Miss Gertrude Walker, Maurice I. Piton, Miss Evelyn Bridgeman, Daniel Bridgeman, Miss Mildred Boody, Irving Boody, Miss Emily Parmelee, Albert Parmelee, Miss Ethel Lindemann, Harold Wetherworth, Howe Bennett, Miss Lucy Stevens, Thomas Randall, Miss May McCormack, Miss Dorothy Wemple, Jack Bell, Miss Clara Wemple, Charles Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Gudrup, Miss Laura Botsford, Arthur Kaufman and others.

A very pretty wedding took place last Thursday evening in Mill Road Chapel, New Dorp, when Miss Isabel H. Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lake, of New Dorp, was married to William J. Jones, formerly of Waterford, Ireland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Crosby, of Trinity Parish, New Dorp. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely dress of white silk, trimmed with old lace, and orange blossoms, sent from Florida for the occasion. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. The little flower girl was Miss Edna Lake, a younger sister of the bride, and she wore a dainty dress of white and carried a daisy basket of pink sweetpeas. Miss Ella Lake was the maid of honor and only other attendant. Her gown was of pink and she carried a large bouquet of pink roses.

Arthur Lake acted as best man and the ushers were Merritt Slight and Gifford Lake. A small reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Lucy Stevens, of Henderson Avenue, New Brighton, entertained the Bridge Club at her home last Friday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. John Carter, Miss Gladys Lord, Miss Dorothy Williams, Miss Gertrude McMasters, Miss Thelma Cudlipp, Miss Dorothy Wemple, Miss Abby Boody, Miss May Camacho, Miss Virginia Deems, Miss Fanny Hamilton, Miss Athena Grymes, Miss Dorothy Gostenhofer, Miss Dorothy Stiles, Miss Edith Chambers and Miss Margaret Chambers.

At the annual meeting of the Staten Island Ladies' Club, which was held last Wednesday morning at the residence of Mrs. William Bryan, in Bard Avenue, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. William Bryan, president; Mrs. Edwin S. O'Brien, vice-president; Mrs. Lane Allura, secretary, and Miss Garrett, treasurer. The board of directors are Mrs. William De Bost, Mrs. Henry T. Dumbell, Mrs. Henry T. Boody, Mrs. Thomas Garrett, Jr., Mrs. M. Adelaide Irving, Miss Laura Johnson, Mrs. Archer Trench and Mrs. Kingley Twining.

Invitations have been sent out for a dance to be held under the management of Christ Church parish house committee on Friday evening, May 14, at Christ Church parish house.

NOTABLE WEDDINGS THAT KEENLY INTEREST SOCIETY IN BROOKLYN

The first June wedding to be definitely announced was that of Miss Jane Buchanan and Richard W. Hollaman. It is to take place Thursday afternoon, June 3, in the Church of the Saviour, the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock to be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 199 Willow Street. Mr. Hollaman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Hollaman, of 536 President Street, and a graduate of Yale '05.

Miss Mary L. Treadway and Charles Wadsworth Howard, whose engagement was announced last fall, are to be married Tuesday, June 1, Miss Treadway in the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman H. Treadway, of Cleveland, at whose home, 8917 Euclid Avenue, the ceremony will take place at 4:30 o'clock.

The last of the season's weddings will include a maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Treadway; a flower girl, Miss Carroll Ferguson; the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ludlow Ferguson (Ruth Wadsworth Howard); eight bridesmaids, Miss Clara Murdoch, of Brooklyn; Miss Dorothy Jennings, Miss Katherine Coit, Miss Harriet Eels, Miss Oriana Stephens, Miss Mabel Collinge, Miss Jennette Kinney and Miss Rachel Clarke, best man, Elton Henry, 2d, of Cleveland, and eight ushers—Frank W. Murray, Jr., Samuel J. Keaton, Sidney C. McCall, Thomas Eastman, of Manhattan; Edward Leisenring, of Cleveland; Jefferson Crane, of Dayton; William Gammell, Jr., of Providence, and Chester Copman, of Tulsa, Okla.

STATEN ISLAND SOCIAL NOTES

Wedding of Miss Grymes to Arthur W. Waite is Celebrated at New Brighton.

The wedding of Miss Athenais Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother at her wedding, was of old rose point lace and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and lavender orchids. Miss Madeline Grymes was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a dress of cerise taffeta, with a tunic of white lace, and a large leg-horn hat trimmed in the same color, and carried a large bunch of Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Hamilton, of Canaanville, N. Y.; Miss Margaret Chambers, Miss Adele Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, of Tyson Street, New Brighton, to Arthur William Waite, also of New Brighton, took place last Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, New Brighton. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The Rev. Duncan Hodge Brown, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with real lace, and a long court train. Her veil, which was also worn by her grandmother